Notices and messages

1 • POSTER — CAN YOU HELP? No equipment. Our school needs new sports equipment, like tennis rackets and cricket bats. Coach Talbot says the school doesn't have enough money, so we have a plan! See us at the gym! Lewis, Charlie and Sophie are going to be outside the gym on North Street on Saturday. They're going to give people their orange juice. What you can do: ask your friends, family and neighbors to give them some money for a healthy drink.

2 • ONLINE POST — Emily: Found! Did you lose a cell phone in the department store this afternoon? It looks new, and it's valuable. It's silver or gray (sorry — I can't remember!), and it's in a blue case with flowers on it. I picked it up and looked after it for an hour, and then I took it to the police station. Call the station if it's yours!

3 • NOTICE — Meet the writer. Our favorite writer, Joanne Mills, is going to be here at Isaac's Bookstore from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Friday with her latest book. She's happy to answer questions and write messages for her fans. There's going to be coffee and small cakes, too. You can buy a book on the day or in advance. Please call the store for more information.

4 • NEWSPAPER ARTICLE — New grocery store at bus station. People who travel to or from the bus station will be happy to hear that a grocery store is opening tomorrow. High school student Margarida Costa said, "It's great news. We need somewhere to buy snacks."

5 • ONLINE POST — Joseph: Lost! My grandpa lost his backpack at the gas station this morning. He thinks he put it on the car roof and then drove away. There are a lot of important things inside, like his cell phone and house keys. Do you know where it is? Please message me.

T. READING 2 • CULTURE Bicycle tours around Dublin

Bicycle tours around Dublin

Join us to see the city of Dublin on two wheels! Cycling tours with local tour guides leave Monday to Saturday at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. and are three hours long. Tours cost 25 euros per person.

WHERE WE GO. The bicycle tour starts in front of Christ Church Cathedral. Here you collect your bike and pay your tour guide. This beautiful building is the oldest church in Ireland. From the cathedral, it is a short ride to Dublin Castle. The castle was built in the 13th century and is now visited by tourists from around the world. In the summer, there are music concerts in the castle gardens.

From the castle, we ride through Temple Bar. People like to come here in the evening to listen to music and dance. There are also lots of cool shops, cafés and places to see street art in this area of the city.

Before crossing the River Liffey, we go past Trinity College. This is the oldest and most important university in Ireland. Over the bridge, you can see Arnotts Department Store. It was opened in 1843 and is the oldest department store in Ireland. We turn left and ride along the river until we get to the National Museum of Ireland. Here you can see interesting art, furniture and clothes. You can learn about the history of Ireland, too.

From the museum, we ride into Phoenix Park. This is the largest city park in Europe. You can look at the beautiful trees, lakes and flowers. You can also see the Áras an Uachtaráin. This large white building is where the President of Ireland lives.

The tour finishes in the park near Dublin Zoo, where we get off our bikes to enjoy a cool drink. After the tour, you can visit the zoo. More than 400 animals are kept here, including giraffes, elephants, tigers and monkeys.

Text messages

CRUZ: Hi Bruno! Would you like to go to the zoo with me tomorrow? We both love animals and there are lots of things to do there. It's going to be a nice sunny day! We can ask Leonor to come, too.

BRUNO: I don't know if going to the zoo is a good idea because the tickets are very expensive. And Leonor doesn't like zoos. Let's go to a park instead. The park near my grandparents' house is fantastic. There's a lake with a beach.

CRUZ: Sounds fantastic! We can have a picnic! Can we swim in the lake?

BRUNO: Yes, we can. And we can go windsurfing if it's windy. Leonor loves windsurfing.

CRUZ: Oh yes. She's very good at it. How far is it?

BRUNO: Not far. It's about 30 minutes by bus.

CRUZ: Great. Meet me at the bus station at 10 a.m. First, don't forget your sunglasses and sunscreen! I'm messaging Leonor now.
